

RESOLUTION NO. 117

WHEREAS, the Washington Urban Coalition has developed a Summer Basketball League involving outstanding young players from the Metropolitan Area and professional players from both the National Basketball Association and the American Basketball Association; and

WHEREAS, said summer league affords metropolitan area citizens an opportunity to see exceptional basketball players and games at no cost; and

WHEREAS, through the organizing efforts of Mr. Robert Dawkins, Alexandria was encouraged to provide facilities for games to be played there for the special benefit of Alexandria citizens; and

WHEREAS, the Urban Coalition Summer League provides a welcome and enjoyable addition to the City's organized recreation program;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT

The City Council of the City of Alexandria express its sincere appreciation to Mr. Robert Dawkins and to the staffs of the Washington Urban Coalition, the City Recreation Department and the Alexandria Public Schools for their cooperative and earnest efforts in establishing the Summer League and bringing it to Alexandria; and

Be it resolved further, that special appreciation be extended to the players of each league for their responsive and generous efforts to bring quality basketball to the citizens of Alexandria in the Summer of 1972.

BY AND ON BEHALF OF THE CITY COUNCIL
OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA

CHARLES E. BEATLEY, JR. MAYOR
