

ORDINANCE NO. 28.

AN ORDINANCE prohibiting drinking ardent spirits in public places.

BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of the City of Alexandria, Virginia:

Section 1: Any person within the City of Alexandria, Virginia, who shall take a drink of ardent spirits in any railroad station, or at any boat landing, or in any day coach, or Pullman car, or on any passenger train, or in any passenger boat, or in any street car, hack, jitney, or other public conveyance, or automobile, or in any street, or alley, highway, or in any other public place, or any person in charge of or employed in connection with any car, boat, hack, jitney, or other public conveyance or automobile, who shall procure for or assist in procuring or who shall give any information or direction by which any person may secure ardent spirits, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

Section 2: All Ordinances or parts of Ordinances and resolutions in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 3: This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its passage.

APPROVED this 20th day of December, 1923.
