

ORDINANCE NO. 4183

AN ORDINANCE to amend and reordain Section 3-2-161 (DEFINITIONS), Section 3-2-163 (EXEMPTION OR DEFERRAL_BELIGIBILITY, RESTRICTIONS GENERALLY), Section 1-3-165 (EXEMPTION OR DEFERRAL_BPROCEDURE FOR CLAIM) and Section 3-2-166 (EXEMPTION OR DEFERRAL_BCALCULATION OF AMOUNT; LIMITATION) of Article L (REAL ESTATE TAX EXEMPTION OR DEFERRAL FOR ELDERLY OR PERMANENTLY AND TOTALLY DISABLED PERSONS), Chapter 2 (TAXATION), Title 3 (FINANCE, TAXATION AND PROCUREMENT) of The Code of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, 1981, as amended.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF ALEXANDRIA HEREBY ORDAINS:

Section 1. That section 3-2-161 of The Code of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, 1981, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, amended and reordained to read as follows:

Sec. 3-2-161 Definitions.

The following words and phrases shall, for the purposes of this article, have the following respective meanings, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) Applicant. Any person who claims an exemption or deferral under section 3-2-165.

(2) City council. The council of the City of Alexandria, Virginia.

(3) Deferral. A deferral of the obligation to pay real estate taxes granted pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(4) Dwelling. The building, or portion of a building, which is owned, at least in part, by an applicant, which is the sole residence of the applicant and which is a part of the real estate for which an exemption from or deferral of taxes is sought pursuant to this article.

(5) Exemption. An exemption from the obligation to pay real estate taxes granted pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(6) Net combined financial worth of applicant. The value of all assets of an applicant, of an applicant's spouse and of any other person who is an owner of and resides in the applicant's dwelling, calculated as of December 31 of the calendar year immediately preceding the taxable year; provided, that the value of the applicant's dwelling, of household furnishings in the dwelling and of up to one acre of the land on which the dwelling is situated shall be excluded.

(7) Permanently and totally disabled persons. An applicant certified as provided by section 3-2-165(d) and found by the city manager to be unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment or deformity which can be expected to result in death or can be expected to last for the duration of such applicant's life.

(8) Relative. Any person related by blood to an applicant who uses the applicant's dwelling as his or her principal residence.

(9) Taxes on the average residential property. An amount equal to the product of (i) the real estate tax rate for the taxable year, as set forth in section 3-2-181, multiplied by (ii) the average assessment for the taxable year of properties reported by the city manager, pursuant to section 3-2-235, as single-family detached, single-family semi-detached, single family-row, condominium garden, condominium high-rise, condominium townhouse, and residential cooperative.

(10) Taxable year. The calendar year for which an exemption or deferral is claimed.

(11) Spouse. The husband or wife of any applicant who resides in the applicant's dwelling.

(12) Total combined income of applicant. The annual gross income from all sources, calculated as of December 31 of the calendar year immediately preceding the taxable year, of the applicant, of the applicant's spouse, of any relative of the applicant who resides in the dwelling, and of any other person who is an owner of and resides in the applicant's dwelling; provided, that up to $6,500 of the income of any such relative and up to $7,500 of the income of any applicant, and any other owner residing in the dwelling, who is permanently disabled shall be excluded.

Section 2. That section 3-2-163 of The Code of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, 1981, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, amended and reordained to read as follows:

Sec. 3-2-163 SameBeligibility, restrictions generally.

Exemptions from or deferral of real estate taxation in any taxable year shall be granted subject to the following restrictions and conditions:

(1) The total combined income for the calendar year immediately preceding the taxable year of an applicant for an exemption may not exceed $35,000. Such income of an applicant for a deferral may not exceed $40,000.

(2) The net combined financial worth of an applicant may not exceed $195,000.

(3) As of January 1 of the taxable year, the applicant must occupy the real estate for which the exemption or deferral is sought as his or her sole residence and must be expected to so occupy the real estate throughout the year; provided, that an applicant who is residing in a hospital, nursing home, convalescent home or other facility for physical or mental care shall be deemed to meet this condition so long as the real estate is not being used by or leased to another for consideration.

(4) An applicant shall file the affidavit or written statement, or annual certification, required by section 3-2-165 no later than April 10 of the taxable year.

(5) Interest on any taxes deferred under this article shall accrue at the rate of eight percent per annum from the date by which such taxes were required to be paid to the date on which such taxes are paid in full. Any and all deferred taxes shall constitute a single lien upon the applicant's real estate as if no deferral had been granted and the taxes had been assessed but not paid. To the extent it exceeds, in the aggregate, 10 percent of the price for which such real estate is sold or, if not sold, 10 percent of its assessed value, any such lien shall be inferior to all other liens.

Section 3. That section 3-2-165 of The Code of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, 1981, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, amended and reordained to read as follows:

Sec. 3-2-165 Same procedure for claim.

(a) For taxable year 2000, and every third taxable year thereafter, and not later than April 10 of the taxable year, any applicant claiming an exemption or deferral of real estate taxes under this article shall file with the city manager, in such manner as the manager shall prescribe and on forms to be supplied by the city, an affidavit or written statement providing the following:

- (1) the name and age of the applicant;
- (2) a statement whether the applicant is permanently and totally disabled;
- (3) the address of the real estate for which the exemption or deferral is claimed;

(4) the names of the applicant's spouse and of the relatives of the applicant and any other owners of the real estate who reside in the applicant's dwelling;

(5) the total combined income of the applicant as defined in section 3-2-161(12);

(6) the net combined financial worth of the applicant as defined in section 3-2-161(6);

(7) the applicant's election of an exemption or deferral; and

(8) the name and addresses of all owners of the real estate other than the owners who reside thereon.

(b) If, after audit and investigation, the city manager determines that the applicant is eligible for an exemption or deferral, the manager shall so certify to the director, who shall deduct the amount of the exemption from the applicant's real estate tax liability or defer such tax liability as herein provided.

(c) Any provision of this article to the contrary notwithstanding, the director may declare eligible to apply for an exemption or deferral any person filing the affidavit or written statement required by subsection (a), or the written certification required by subsection (f), after April 10 but before December 15 of the taxable year, provided good cause is shown for the failure to file the affidavit, statement or certification on or before April 10 of the taxable year.

(d) Any applicant under 65 years of age claiming an exemption or deferral on the basis of a permanent and total disability shall attach to the affidavit or written statement required by subsection (a), or the written certification required by subsection (f), a certification by the Social Security Administration or, if the person is not eligible for social security, an affidavit by two medical doctors licensed to practice medicine in the commonwealth to the effect that the person is unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of a medically determinable physical or mental impairment or deformity which can be expected to result in death or can be expected to last for the duration of the person's life.

(e) Any applicant initially claiming an exemption or deferral of real estate taxes under this article, in a taxable year other than those specifically referred to in subsection (a), shall file for such taxable year the affidavit or written statement required by subsection (a). Thereafter, such applicant shall file an affidavit or written statement, or a written certification, as required by subsection (a) or (f).

(f) For each taxable year as to which an affidavit or written statement is not required by subsection (a), the applicant shall file with the city manager, not later than April 10, a written certification, on forms to be supplied by the city, in which the applicant states that the information contained in the applicant's last filed affidavit or written statement has not changed in a manner which affects either the applicant's eligibility for an exemption or deferral under this article or the amount of the exemption or deferral. In the event that the information in the last filed affidavit or statement has changed in such a manner, the applicant shall file a new affidavit or written statement pursuant to subsection (a).

Section 4. That section 3-2-166 of The Code of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, 1981, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, amended and reordained to read as follows:

Sec. 3-2-166 SameBcalculation of amount; limitation.

(a) The exemption from or deferral of real estate taxes granted under this article for any taxable year shall be calculated as follows:

(1) when the total combined income of the applicant does not exceed $12,800, the applicant shall be exempt from the taxes owed for the year;

(2) when the total combined income of the applicant exceeds $12,800 but does not exceed $25,600, the applicant shall be exempt from the taxes owed for the year, in an amount equal to the taxes on the average residential property, as defined in section 3-2-161(9) (but in no event greater than the taxes owed for the year), and may defer all or part of the amount of such taxes in excess of the amount exempted;

(3) when the total combined income of the applicant exceeds $25,600 but does not exceed $30,000, the applicant shall be exempt from the taxes owed for the year, in an amount equal to seventy-five percent (75%) of the taxes on the average residential property, as defined in section 3-2-161(9) (but in no event greater than the taxes owed for the year), and may defer all or part of the amount of such taxes in excess of the amount exempted;

(4) when the total combined income of the applicant exceeds $30,000 but does not exceed $35,000, the applicant shall be exempt from the taxes owed for the year, in an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the taxes on the average residential property, as defined in section 3-2-161(9) (but in no event greater than the taxes owed for the year), and may defer all or part of the amount of such taxes in excess of the amount exempted; and

(5) when the total combined income of the applicant exceeds $35,000 but does not exceed $40,000, the applicant may defer all or part of the taxes owed for the year.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) above, if the real estate identified in the affidavit or written statement filed under section 3-2-165 is not owned solely by the applicant and his or her spouse, the amount of the tax exemption or deferral shall be either the amount of the taxes on the real estate for the taxable year times the percentage ownership interest in the real estate held by the applicant, or by the applicant and his or her spouse, or an amount equal to taxes on the average residential property, as defined in section 3-2-161(9), whichever is less.

Section 5. That this ordinance shall become effective upon the date and at the time of its final passage.
