

ORDINANCE NO. 129

AN ORDINANCE to amend Ordinance No. 109 of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, approved July 25th, 1931, being an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to regulate and restrict the location of buildings and structures and of premises to be used for trade, industry, residence or other specified uses within the City of Alexandria; to divide the city into zones, and to impose in each of said zones regulations designating the kinds or classes of trades, industries, residences or other purposes for which buildings or other structures or premises may be erected, altered or used; and to regulate the height, bulk and location of buildings and other structures and the areas of yards and open spaces," as amended.

Be It Ordained by the Council of the City of Alexandria, Virginia:

SECTION 1. That the Zoning Map described and referred to in Section 2 of Ordinance No. 109 of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, as amended, be changed and amended in the following particulars, to-wit:

That all of the area of that parcel of land located at the southwest intersection of Franklin and Washington Streets, rectangular in shape, with a frontage of 100 feet on Washington Street, southward from the south side of Franklin Street, and a frontage of 120 feet on Franklin Street, westward from the west side of Washington Street, now designated as "A" Residence Zone be changed and rezoned as "D" Commercial Zone.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its passage.

Approved this 25th day of April, 1933.

EDMUND F. TICER, Mayor.