

ORDINANCE NO. 132

AN ORDINANCE to amend Ordinance No. 109 of the Council of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, approved July 25th, 1931, being an Ordinance entitled: "An Ordinance to regulate and restrict the location of buildings and structures and of premises to be used for trade, industry, residence or other specified uses within the City of Alexandria; to divide the City into zones, and to impose in each of said zones regulations designating the kinds or classes of trades, industries, residences or other purposes for which buildings or other structures or premises may be erected, altered or used; and to regulate the height, bulk and location of buildings and other structures and the areas of yards and open spaces," as amended.

WHEREAS, in the opinion of the Council of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, it was deemed advisable in the public interest and general welfare to change the zone classification of the area of land located at the northeast intersection of Prince and Payne Streets, and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the provisions of Section XIV of Ordinance No. 109, a public hearing has been held by the Council upon said proposed change after due public notice,

Therefore, Be It Ordained by the Council of the City of Alexandria, Virginia:

Section 1. That the Zoning Map described and referred to in Section 2 of Ordinance No. 109 of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, as amended be changed and amended in the following particular, to-wit:

That all of the area located at the northeast intersection of Prince and Payne Streets running northwardly from Prince Street to the alley in said square between Prince and Commerce Streets now classified "D" Commercial zone be changed to "C" Residence zone.

Section 2. This ordinance shall be effective immediately upon its passage.

Approved this 29th day of June, 1933.

EDMUND F. TICER,
Mayor.
