

ORDINANCE NO. 160

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND ORDINANCE No. 109 of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, approved July 25, 1931, being an Ordinance entitled:

"An Ordinance to regulate and restrict the location of buildings and structures and of premises to be used for trade, industry, residence or other specified uses within the City of Alexandria; to divide the City into zones, and to impose in each of said zones regulations designating the kinds or classes of trades, industries, residences or other purposes for which buildings or other structures or premises may be erected, altered or used; and to regulate the height, bulk and location of buildings and other structures and the areas of yards and open spaces."

Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Alexandria, Virginia:

Section 1. That the Zoning Map described and referred to in Section 2 of Ordinance No. 109 of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, as amended, be changed and amended in the following particulars, to-wit:

(a) That all of the area of that lot of ground located on the east side of Henry Street, at the north line of a 16 foot alley, said lot having a frontage of 37 feet 5 inches on Henry Street and a depth eastwardly of 83 feet 5 inches, and the south line of said lot being 104 feet north of Duke Street, be changed from "C" Residence to "D" Commercial Zone.

(b) That all of that area of land located on the south side of Pendleton Street, between Patrick and Henry Streets, with a depth southwardly from Pendleton Street of 120 feet be changed from "B" Residence to "D" Commercial Zone.

Section 2. This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its passage.

APPROVED this 2nd day of October, 1934.

E. C. DAVISON, Mayor.
