

ORDINANCE NO. 234

AN ORDINANCE to amend Ordinance No. 163 of the City of Alexandria approved November 7, 1934, entitled "AN ORDINANCE to prohibit the conduct, promotion or managing of any lottery, raffle, numbers game or any other game of chance, or buying or selling any tickets in or otherwise playing in any such lottery, raffle, numbers game or any other game of chance, how punished." by adding thereto Section 1-A and repealing and re-enacting Section 3 thereof.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of Alexandria, Virginia:

SECTION 1. That Ordinance No. 163 of the City of Alexandria approved November 7, 1934, be amended by adding thereto Section 1-A and repealing and re-enacting Section 3 to read as follows:

"SECTION 1-A: That the possession of any chance ticket, certificate, writing, bill, token, or other device purporting or intended to assure any person of an interest in any lottery, raffle, numbers game or other game of chance shall be prima facie evidence of operating, promoting, aiding in the promotion of, or playing such lottery, raffle, numbers game or other game of chance."

"SECTION 3: Any violation of any provision of this ordinance shall be punishable by fine not exceeding $300 or by imprisonment in the City Jail not exceeding ninety days or both for a first offence and by a fine not less than $100 nor more than $300 and confinement in the City Jail not less than ten nor more than ninety days for any second or subsequent offence.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall take effect on the 26th day of April, 1937.

Approved this 20th day of April, 1937.

E. C. DAVISON, Mayor
