

ORDINANCE NO. 391

AN ORDINANCE to repeal and re-enact Section 9 of Ordinance No. 368 regulating camp sites and grounds for automobiles, trailers and other temporary units of occupancy.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA that Section 9 of ordinance No. 368 passed by the City Council of Alexandria and approved the 6th day of January, 1942 be repealed and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

That every camp site or trailer park shall provide available unoccupied space measuring not less than twenty feet by forty feet, and containing not less than 800 square feet, for each camp automobile or trailer, and such available unoccupied space shall not be construed to mean the space directly under any portion of any camp automobile or trailer. Camp automobiles or trailers shall be arranged in rows abutting or facing on a driveway or clear unoccupied space of not less than twenty-five feet in width, which space shall have unobstructed access to a public street or alley. Each trailer shall be exactly centered on said lot and each trailer or other service unit shall be located at a greater distance than twenty feet from any permanent habitation and from any street, sidewalk or other public area.

This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its passage.

Approved this 11th day of August, 1942.

WILLIAM T. WILKINS,
Mayor
