

Ordinance No. 427

AN ORDINANCE to vacate a portion of South Street and a portion of Henry Street in the City of Alexandria, Virginia.

WHEREAS, application has been made to the Council for the appointment of viewers to view and report in writing whether in their opinion, any, and if any, what inconvenience would result from discontinuing and vacating South Street from Patrick Street to Hunting Creek Road and Henry Street from Hunting Creek Road to the water; and

WHEREAS, a notice of such application was posted at the court house of the Corporation Court of Alexandria and at two public places in the City in the manner required by law; and

WHEREAS, the Council did appoint Charles E. Corbett, Thomas M. Jones, Jr., and Eppa D. Kane as such viewers for such purposes; and

WHEREAS, said viewers have reported to the Council that in their opinion the discontinuance and vacation of said streets would not cause any inconvenience to the City of Alexandria or its citizens or to adjoining property owners, provided, a 100-foot curved street is opened from Hunting Creek Road to Patrick Street as shown upon a plat submitted with said report; and

WHEREAS, the adjoining property owner, he being the sole proprietor along the streets proposed to be abandoned and discontinued, and he having had notice as required, is now willing to convey to the City of Alexandria land for a 100-foot street running from said Patrick Street to Hunting Creek Road as shown on the plat mentioned, and he now offers his deed therefor; and it is deemed that the welfare and best interests of the City and its citizens will be served by the vacation and abandonment of said streets;

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of Alexandria, Virginia as follows:

Section 1. That the hereinafter described portion of South Street and Patrick Street in the City of Alexandria, Virginia, be and the same hereby are vacated and abandoned:

- (1) All of South Street from the west side of Patrick Street extending westwardly to Hunting Creek Road.
- (2) All of Henry Street from the southeast side of Hunting Creek Road extending southwardly to the waters of Hunting Creek.

Section 2. That this ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its passage.
