

Ordinance No. 655

AN ORDINANCE authorizing the owner and his successors in title to maintain the encroachment of the building on the premises at No. 500 South Columbus Street, as of January 1, 1948, in, upon and over one of the public streets of the city, until such building is destroyed or removed.

Whereas, Sidney Weinman is the owner of a certain lot of ground located on the East side of South Columbus Street at its intersection with Wilkes Street, together with the improvements hereon, known as premises 500 South Columbus Street; and

WHEREAS, the building thereon does and did on January 1, 1948 and for some years prior thereto encroach in, upon and over said Columbus Street, one of the public streets of the city, to the extent of approximately an average distance of 0.15 feet; and

WHEREAS, it is determined that the continuance of said encroachment until such building is destroyed or removed will not be detrimental to the public interest;

THEREFORE THE CITY COUNCIL OF ALEXANDRIA HEREBY ORDAINS:

That the said Sidney Weinman, and his successors in title, be, and they hereby are authorized to maintain and continue such encroachment on the public street as it existed on January 1, 1948 until such building is destroyed or removed; provided this authority shall not be construed to relieve said owners of any negligence on their part on account of such encroachment.

2. That this ordinance shall be published in the Alexandria Gazette not later than two days following its introduction together with a notice containing the time and place for a public hearing. The clerk of the council shall note the date of introduction and first reading, the date of publication, the date of the public hearing, and the date of the second reading and final passage in the minutes of the meeting. This ordinance shall become effective the date of its final passage.

FRANKLIN P. BACKUS,
Mayor.
